INTRODUCTION TO THE WORKSHOP

Teaching with cases has become an integral part of management education today. The outcomes of this approach are: more participation by students, highly stimulating classroom discussions, honing of problem solving and cognitive skills of students, better preparedness of students for real life corporate realities/issues, learning becomes multi-dimensional and inter-disciplinary – and a renewed joy in teaching and learning.

The School of Business Management, SVKM's NMIMS, Navi Mumbai is organizing a two days Faculty Development Program (FDP) on Case Writing and Teaching. This FDP aims to: bring out the strengths of case method in teaching, motivate the participants to adopt 'case teaching' as an additional pedagogical tool in delivery of their future courses, equip participants to teach cases more effectively and also train them in the craft of case writing.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

The participants through this FDP should:

- Develop an appreciation of case method in teaching of Management and Social Sciences;
- Be able to orient students for learning with cases;
- Learn to develop and plan for case based courses;
- Become aware of background preparation required to become successful case teachers;
- Get insights into the process of managing classroom discussions;
- Select from alternative approaches to the case teaching;
- Learn to assess & evaluate students through the cases;
- Be motivated to write their own cases by understanding the intricacies of case writing process.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

This FDP is designed for the current and prospective teachers in academic institutions and corporate trainers. This FDP will benefit: (a) all those teachers who are new to the case based teaching; (b) even those teachers who have case teaching experience, but want to further improve their case teaching effectiveness; and (c) professionals wanting to hone their case writing skills. Workshop will also be useful to the research scholars who intend to join teaching profession in due course of time. A certificate of participation shall be provided to all the participants.

TOPICAL COVERAGE

The topical coverage of the FDP will be:

- What is a "Teaching Case"?
- Pros and Cons of Case Method of Teaching
- Orienting Students for Learning with Cases
- Designing and Planning for Case Based Courses
- Preparing for Case Session
- Alternative Approaches to the Case Teaching
- Facilitating a Case Session/Discussion based Teaching
- Assessment & Evaluation through Cases
- Mechanics of Case Writing
